

BOOK CLUB QUESTIONS

“FLAT WHITE LIES” BY AA ABBOTT

SPOILER ALERT: these questions are best discussed after the book has been read.

- The book is divided into short chapters, with Jenna’s point of view in the first person, while Skye and A Man With A Problem’s POV were in the third person. How did you feel about that?
- Were there any characters whose POV you would have liked to have seen?
- When did you become suspicious about Andrew?
- When did you realise who A Man With A Problem was?
- How much sympathy did you have for each of Jenna, Skye or A Man With A Problem?
- Which character did you hate the most?
- If you could go back in time to Jenna’s birth, what advice would you give her mother and stepfather?
- What did you think of Grace? How about her mother, Sheila, and brothers, Alex (who inherited the business) and Logan?
- Do you think Sheila will soften towards Jenna?
- How do you see Jenna’s relationship with her stepfather panning out in future? And her relationship with Sam?
- Who was your favourite character?
- Your favourite scene in the story?
- ...And your favourite cupcake flavour?

- Do you know the Clifton district of Bristol? If so, which café do you recommend for coffee and cake?
- Did you know that “Flat White Lies” is available in several print formats (hardback, paperback, large print and dyslexia-friendly print) as well as the ebook edition? The dyslexia-friendly edition, like this document, uses the easy-reading Lexend font. How did you get on with reading it?
- Have you read other books by AA Abbott? How does “Flat White Lies” compare with them?
- How would you sum up “Flat White Lies” in one sentence?
